SUGAR DROPPED TO LOW POINT

Several Cents for Refined Was Quoted After Raw Sugar Market Had Declined

NEW YORK, May 23.—Raw sugar continued its downward trend today when a refiner bought 7,000 bags of Porto Rican at a price equal to 5.23 duty paid. This represents a new low level for the year and is within quarter cent of the lowest since January 18, 1923. In creased Cuban crop estimates and a poor demand for refined, owing to cool weather, explained the break.

Following the severe drop in raw sugar the price of fine granulated was cut by one leading refiner to 7 cents, a new low for the year and 2 1-8 down from the highest since January 1.

An increase in the estimate of the Cuban crop to 4,012,000 tons by a leading house and a continued decline in spots led to a heavy general selling in raw sugar futures. Prices broke sharply.

Trading in the Option Has Been Stopped and Shorts May Now Settle

(Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 23.—A sharp setback occurred in the cotton market early today as a result of improved weather in the belts, weaker cables and a continued slow demand for goods as reflected in sales of only 10,000 to 15,000 pieces at Fall River for the week.

There was liberal selling by Liverpool, the South and New Orleans, but on the decline Wall street interests bought a good deal of cotton and showed considerable bullish interest in the market.

A local house issued a crop report making condition 67.0 with an increase of 4.5 per cent. The report was considered bullish as forecasting a rather low government condition figure on June 2.

The market quieted down somewhat in the afternoon when prices ruled about 10 points net lower on July and unchanged to 7 points net lower on new crop positions.

Trading in May contracts ceased at noon with a sale at 31.98 or 275 points premium over July. Wall street and commission houses continued to buy on recessions.

Futures closed barely steady.

MAYFIELD HAD LITTLE MONEY

Brother Took up Collections from Salesmen Who Were in His Employ

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 23—More testimony bearing on the charge of Ku Klux Klan activities in the 1922 senatorial campaign in Texas was heard today by the senate committee investigating the election contest brought against Senator Mayfield by George E. B. Peddy.

The committee also questioned M. G. Mayfield of Terrell, a brother of the senator, who said he was active in the campaign and had contributed to its expenses. He had on the road 18 or 20 salesmen employed by his grocer company, he said, and from them he collected from time to time small contributions which he split up and applied part to his own expenses in connection with the work done for his brother.

The witness said he had not solicited contributions to the Mayfield campaign from any of his customers. Among his traveling salesmen he named Sam Jones, J. D. Patterson, D. B. Connell, Hardy Petty, and Frank Jones as having given amounts ranging from $10 to $25 each. The grocery company has a capital stock of $800,000, he said, of which Senator Mayfield owned from $20,000 to $30,000. He testified the company never advanced money to Senator Mayfield.

Senator Mayfield had received his share of his father's estate, $10,000, long before his father's death in September, 1921, the witness continued when pressed by Peddy's counsel as to the source of money used by the senator in his campaign.

The expenses of the Mayfield headquarters at Austin in both the primary and general elections amounted to $9000, witness continued. This information had been given, he said, by his father.

When the Peddy attorneys took him into the extent of the klan organization in Texas, he declared that "all the people down in my country belong to it."

He emphatically declared no contributions had been received to the senator's campaign from the Ku Klux Klan organization in Texas.

"Not one cent?" asked William P. McLean, counsel for Mayfield.

"Not one cent," answered the witness.

The witness testified that his total contribution to his brother's campaign did not exceed $125 or $150.

Luther Nickels, counsel for Peddy, called the committee's attention particularly to the witness' statement that expenses at the Mayfield Austin headquarters had been $9000. The sworn statement submitted by Senator Mayfield, Nickels said, had not shown expenses of over half that amount.

There being no other witnesses present, the committee adjourned until Monday with an admonition to Peddy's counsel that he must hurry his witnesses so the committee could complete its work quickly.

Subpoenas were issued by wire at the request of Peddy's lawyers requiring the presence next Tuesday of J. F. Collier, F. C. Van Valkenburg and a man named Morris of Dallas; W. M. Priddy of Wichita Falls; R. C. Hammer and Earl H. Lilly of Fort Worth, and J. S. Dickey, Jr., of Henrietta.

Nickels said that Collier, an expert accountant, would testify concerning an audit he made of klan books; Van Valkenburg is wanted for examination as chairman of the finance committee of the Dallas klan; Priddy will be questioned concerning collcetions for the Mayfield campaign, and Hammer and Lilly are to be examined as former officers of the Fort Worth klan.

HEATED TALK BY COMMITTEE MEN

Witness Said That Means' Story Was a Fairy Tale Easily to Be Disproved

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The troubles of Gaston B. Means, star witness for the Daugherty committee were debated before the committee today at a session resounding with tumult from beginning to end.

Hiram C. Todd, assistant attorney general in charge of the prosecutions against Means in New York was on the witness stand; but committee members and counsel for former Attorney General Daugherty took up much of the time with a series of quarrels so bitter that the spectators tried to join in, and were quieted by capitol police.

Todd himself, accused by Chairman Brookhart of being "unfit for his job," fired sharply back across the committee table at the jibes of his questioners, declaring the committee had shown "indignity" toward the courts and reminding Senator Wheeler, the committee prosecutor, that he himself is under indictment in Montana.

The witness said Means' story of the disappearance of his famous diary was a "famous fairy tale" which could be disproved easily by the testimony of two department of justice agents who guarded the Means residence.

"The only purpose of the watch set over Means by the department," Todd insisted, was to observe his health and see whether he was well enough to come to New York for trial.

After the committee adjourned, Senator Brookhart, Paul Howland, of the Daugherty counsel, and Means renewed verbal hostilities in an adjoining hallway, with the result that a police officer intervened with a caution which ended the argument.

POLICE AT A LOSS IN FRANK MURDER

Few Clews to Indicate Why the Chicago Boy Was Put to Death

(Associated Press)

CHICAGO, May 23—Clues leading both to high culture and to degeneracy mystified police today in solving the kidnaping, murder and attempt at ransom of Robert Franks, 14, son of Jacob Franks, a millionaire Chicago manufacturer.

Franks started to walk three blocks to his home late Wednesday after umpiring a ball game at the Harvard school and was not seen again until his body was found, nude and bruised, under a culvert several miles away.

Soon after the kidnaping and before the probable hour fixed by the coroner for the death, Mrs. Franks, the mother, received a telephone call from a suave speaking man that the boy was held for ransom, that directions how to pay would come later, and warning her not to trace telephone calls.

"The injunction about tracing calls was disregarded but their source was not located.

Next morning, about the time the body was discovered, the family received a letter which police said was written by a well educated person, demanding $10,000 ransom.

With the money prepared as the letter instructed, Mr. Franks waited at his home until a telephone call from "Johnson," at 3:15 in the afternoon told him to bring it in a taxicab he was sending to a drug store a mile away. By the time the cab arrived, the family had been notified of the finding of the body of a boy which developed to be that of Robert.

The boy was one of the most brilliant students, Charles E. Pence, principal of the Harvard school said. He was in the freshman class and a star debater. The school is one of the oldest and most famous preparatory institutions in Chicago.

When the owner of a pair of horn rimmed spectacles found near the body has been discovered, one of the murderers will in all probability have been discovered Chief Hughes added. The spectacles did not belong to the boy, but are of small size and fitted for a near-sighted man with a large nose.

Irvin Hartman, 11, said he saw the boy leave the school Wednesday and saw a big gray automobile standing at the curb a half block away as Robert was approaching. When he looked again, Irvin said, the car was starting, but Robert was not in sight.

SENATE VOTED ITS FAITH IN WHEELER

Five Republicans Voted Against Adoption of the Majority Committee Report

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The senate adopted the majority report of its investigating committee exonerating Senator Wheeler, (dem.) Montana, of the charge of accepting a fee to prosecute oil land claims before the interior department after his election to the senate. The vote was 56 to 5.

Eighteen republicans joined with 36 democrats and two farmer-labor senators in support of the report. It was announced that all of the absent democratic senators would have supported the report had they been present.

Four republican senators were present but did not vote. They were Moses, New Hampshire; Reed, Pennsylvania; Warren, Wyoming; and Wadsworth, New York.

Voting against the committee port were Curtis, Kansas; Phipps, Colorado; Spencer, Missouri; Sterling, South Dakota, and Willis, Ohio, all republicans.

Senator Spencer, (rep.) Missouri, offered a resolution which would have modified the committee's sweeping exoneration of Senator Wheeler and would have declared merely that the inquiry had disclosed no facts which would disqualify him from serving in the senate. It was defeated 56 to 8.

A motion to postpone action was made by Senator Sterling, (rep.) South Dakota, who filed a minority report from the special committee. He proposed that the majority report exonerating Senator Wheeler be held in abeyance, and that in the meantime no steps be taken to question that senator's right to exercise the duties of his membership.

POLICIES FIGURE IS NOT SO LARGE

Actuaries Had Taken into Account the Twenty-fice Per Cent Adition

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Veterans bureau actuaries informed members of congress for the first time that the list of "factors" prepared by them and recently made public for computing the amounts of insurance due under the bonus law took into account the extra 25 per cent of adjusted service compensation allowed by the bill on insurance certificates.

This means that a veteran in computing the value of the insurance policy he will receive simply will multiply his credits at $1.25 a day for foreign service, and $1.00 a day for home service by his factor, which previously has been made public. The extra 25 per cent is not to be added as heretofore announced. As an example, if the veteran has the maximum amount of home service credit, $500, the insurance policy would amount to about two and one-half that amount or $1250, according to the age of the veteran.

H. P. Brown, veterans' bureau actuary explained the table of factors recently made public had been based on values of $1.25 instead of $1 as usual, and thus took into account the extra 25 per cent allowed by the bill and saved a double computation.

This will result in lower values for insurance policies all along the line than had been figured by congress, Brown said, but would make no difference in the estimated cost of the bill, since all these facts have been taken into consideration by the actuaries of both the veterans bureau and the treasury department, who figured on the expense.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—All the big guns of the Republican old guard forces, charged to the muzzles with shrapnel and T.N.T., have been concentrated in a terrific political barrage designed to blast the chances of Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa for renomination as Republican candidate for the United States Senate.

Why this massing of forces is deemed necessary against one individual may be understood when it is known that the man thus opposed by this concentration of stand-pat heavy artillery was—actually, not figuratively—the crack sharpshooter of the American army during the late war and in politics has shown an equal facility in scoring bull's-eyes.

—o—

SENATOR BROOKHART is even more hated by the old guard Republicans than is La Follette, and next to La Follette is the most feared. Threats, intimidation, all the pull and pressure that can be exerted by the powers that be in Washington, have failed to swerve him in his fight against the pet policies of the Republican "regulars" and for measures which his party opposition brand as "radical" and "destructive."

Brookhart was a leader in the fight which blocked the selection of his Republican fellow senator from Iowa, Albert B. Cummins, for another term as chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee, which passes on railroad legislation. This, naturally, won him the enmity of all the groups and interests favorable to the Esch-Cummins law, which was thus made vulnerable.

He fathered the resolution for an investigation of the conduct of the Department of Justice, which resulted in the dismissal of Atty. Gen. Daugherty and disclosed a story of graft and corruption "influence" and favoritism that is still uncompleted. In a dozen other ways he has disturbed the peace and the patience of party chiefs who believe that first-term senators, like good little boys, "should be seen and not heard" and should obey the orders of their seniors and paternal party "leaders."

—o—

SINCE Brookhart would do none of these things, and not only has spoken out in meeting but has preached doctrines that ring of rank heresy to old guard Republican ears, the order has gone out to "get" him.

"Iowa Republicans, Beat Brookhart," is the admonition in large type heading an appeal being mailed into that state to every registered Republican voter.

"The Republicans of Iowa," says this document, "owe it to themselves, their state, their party and their country to defeat Senator Smith W. Brookhart for renomination at the primary to be held on June 2.

"Brookhart should be defeated because he is not a Republican, but an implacable enemy of Republicanism."

And so on to the extent of about 5000 words, in which the fighting Iowa sharpshooter is pictured as a man likely to overthrow the whole kit and kaboodle of our cherished American institutions and ideals, substituting therefor a government more wild and weird than anything Nikolai Lenin ever dreamed.

—o—

"OLD STUFF," says Brookhart, grinning as he reads the document. "They said all that two years ago when I was first elected.

"This is simply an effort of the privileged interests, headed by the railroads, to discredit and defeat me. My people in Iowa will recognize it for what it is. I'll leave it to them to decide."

Brookhart isn't even leaving Washington in an effort to protect his fences in Iowa.

He'll stay on the job here, leaving his enemies no opportunity to slip something across while he's away.

And if he's worried or nervous, it doesn't show to date in his trigger finger!

JESUS SAID UNTO HER, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.—John 11:25.

IT IS REALLY ONLY THE BEGINNING

There is widespread protest at the bonus bill which has been enacted over the veto of President Coolidge: and as the idea percolates that tax reduction is now impossible—and will be for twenty years to come—there is a feeling among the taxpayers that they are without hope. Said taxpayers including many of the veterans of the world war.

The taxpayers might as well make up their minds to one thing right now; this bonus bill is merely the beginning. Each biennium is going to see additional bonuses, further adjustment of compensation, pensions and many other things in the name of the world war veterans.

When we began our pension and bonus system the South was the section which must pay—and Germany faces no such crisis as did the South, laid waste and with her man-power stricken and at the mercy of the merciless.

The South paid—and is still paying heavily for the war which ended sixty years ago.

But the entire country is going to pay the bill for the war of 1918, and it is going to require nearly the whole of the century to do it.

The present bonus bill is merely the beginning. Of that you may be sure. And as the years go on you will become accustomed to it.

But don't think that there is to be an early escape from the hundreds of millions which are paid annually to the veterans of the Union armies, their widows, dependents and descendents. That bill is just as heavy now as it was ten years ago, despite the decrease in the number of the surviving veterans.

The veto by the president of the Bursum bill was some saving to the taxpayers — but it merely was a postponement. It will come back within a couple of years and probably will be put through; along with other bills for the veterans of other wars.

And it must be borne in mind that the veterans of the Spanish American war are also awakening to their neglect and are stirring.

If any argument were needed against war it is supplied in the pension bills; and these are shared by every nation. The United States is not the only country which is paying bonus, adjusted compensation and pensions. Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy—all save that pure democracy, the Soviet; which repudiated all such obligations and has not yet begun the payment of the new bill.

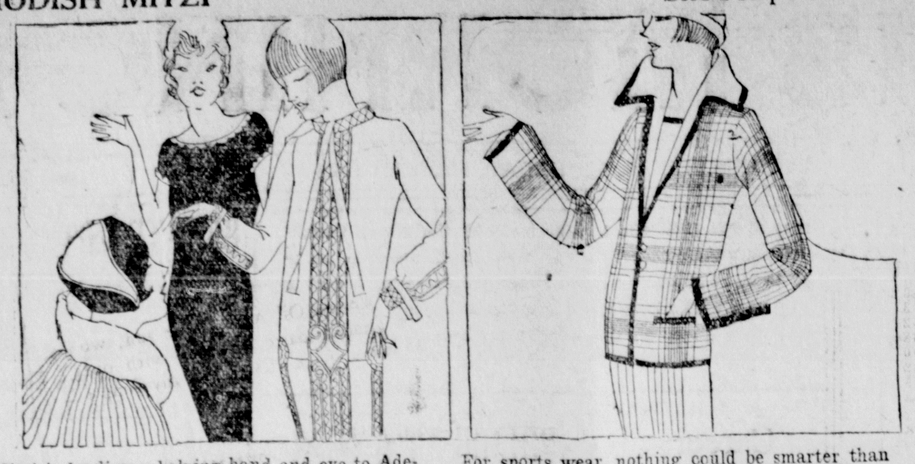
MODISH MITZI

She Helps Adelaide Buy a Trousseau

By JAY V. JAY



Mitzi is lending a helping hand and eye to Adelaide's purchases. This dress, they both decide, is one no trousseau should be without. It is beige crepe trimmed with gold colored crepe and gold embroidery. The hipline is extremely new—being slightly fitted to the figure.

For sports wear, nothing could be smarter than this. It is flannel—a large and effective plaid combined with plain material. The skirt is pleated and fastened to a camisole. The jacket blouse is loose and comfortable with a wide flaring collar to give it extra dash.

Fashion prefers angles to curves this season, and Adelaide chooses wisely when she buys this black satin frock. Its stiff straight panels—one on the blouse, two on the skirt—are of black chiffon embroidered in gold. Adelaide, being blonde, wears black charmingly.

A bouffant dance frock is a bit of a departure for Adelaide, but everyone is wearing bouffant frocks now. So she chooses this one of chiffon and lace. The sleeves—such as they are—are most new. All evening gowns are practically or entirely sleeveless.

BANKERS HAD AN OPTIMISTIC AIR

H. L. Baker of Lamar State Bank Noted Absence of Gloom at Convention

The outstanding feature of the State bankers convention held at Austin this week, says H. L. Baker of the Lamar State Bank and Trust company, was the spirit of optimism everywhere and the absence of calamity howlers and talk of poor business.

The largest attendance yet present at such a meeting was recorded, and yet no one complained of poor conditions, and none seemed gloomy over the prospects.

While business is dull in some sections, it is being taken for granted and better times looked forward to, the indications pointing to a good crop, in spite of the fact that the growth everywhere is about three weeks late.

There has been more rain in the vicinity of Austin than in this section, but there is no depression there and everyone seems to be feeling good over the outlook.

The Austin people were more than hospitable in their desire to care for the visitors, and could not seem to do enough for thei rcomfort and entertainment.

All sorts of entertainments were arranged and in addition to other affairs, a special reception was held at the governor's mansion, and practically all the delegates attended.

In addition to caring for the large number of bankers, the city was also entertaining a church conference with five or six hundred delegates, and there was plenty of fun and hospitality to go round for all.

TO BE THE GUEST OF PATTONVILLE FRIENDS

Rube Sykes, the left-handed fiddler from Tigertown, was in the city Thursday on his way to Pattonville to be a guest of the Patton brothers for a week. Mr. Sykes has lived in Lamar county seventy-one years, he having come here from Cass county when he was two years old, and this is his first visit to Pattonville.

He met the Patton boys when he played at the coliseum at the fair grounds a few months ago at a dance that was given for the benefit of the old soldiers, and they were so well pleased with him that they made him promise to come to see them and be their guest for several days.

They will take him around in the neighborhood to play for their friends and may have a few entertainments in his honor.

"A Solid Quart of Dead Flies," Certainly, Sweet Dreams Spray

Restaurant Keeper Tries the "Kill While You Look" Remedy in the Kitchen.

To be able to kill flies by the quart, solves one of the big problems of the restaurant keepers.

The housewife, the operators of meat markets and bakeries, and others will heed this testimony. Sweet Dreams Spray will solve any problem that arises from the presence of insects: flies, mites, moths, bed-bugs, ants or fleas.

Sweet Dreams Spray is not a poison, and it kills insects while you look. It is therefore most highly recommended for general use.

Tight pitching by McCormack and Roberts featured yesterday's ball game, which the Hunters finally won by a score of 3 to 2. After hurling good ball for eight innings and staving off several threatening runs, McCormack weakened in the ninth after one ma was down, allowing the enemy three clean singles, which sandwiched in with a momentary fumble of Robertson's single over second by Gallegos allowed the winnig run to trickle over.

Craig was out from Wobido to Cutting, but Chatham, Dean and E. Robertson hit safely. Chatham was on second when E. Robertson hit a line single into center. Gallegos came in fast, got the ball and then dropped it, Chatham racing home.

The Hunters grabbed a two run lead in the third when Robertson, first up, got a base on balls and Roberts doubled to right center. Kitts tripled and both Robertson and Roberts scored. Kitts was caught off third.

The North Stars scored in the third, when Byers beat out an infield hit, and after McCormack had flied out, Wobido hit a single to center. Crozier flew out to right, but Gallegos dumped a Texas leaguer into center, scoring Byers. The locals knotted the count in the fifth. McCormack worked Roberts for a base on balls, and Wobido hit through Lewis, McCormack going to third, and scoring on Crozier's long fly to Kitts in right.

The two clubs then fought on even terms until the ninth, neither being able to work a runner over the plate until that period. Both the North Stars and the visitors had men on bases in nearly every inning after the fifth, but both pitchers were tight with runners on the sacks.

It was one of the best games played on the local lot this season, both clubs fighting every inch of the way, and giving the pitchers good support. It looked as if the contest was going into extra innings until the fatal ninth. The North Stars could do nothing with Roberts in their half of the ninth, and another victory is credited to Greenville.

Dallas Locked, an infielder who has been with Beaumont, is expected to arrive in time to get in today's game. He plays any infield position. Belcher will be out of the game for a couple of weeks longer, as his ailing wrist was found to have a bone cracked.

Brown, the sensational, will be sent against the Hunters today, and his work wil be lamped by a couple of big league scouts, one of whom is Bob Connery, head ivory hunter for the New York Yankees.

Tyler will be the next club to visit this city, and on the club is a former Paris favorite, Chalmers Williams. "General" Gawge Jackson, in the game for twenty years, is another well known player with the Trojans.

SUNDAY SCHOOL GROUP MEETINGS AT BOGATA

The Sunday school group meetings of the Methodist Sunday schools of Paris district came to a close with a sort of rally at Bogata Friday.

The institute has been held at Chicota, Clarksville and Roxton at various times during the week and fine results are reported from each meeting.

The wind-up at Bogata yesterday was well attended and the team work as shown in the service was great. The speakers were much the same as those of the meeting at the other places.

Rev. O. W. Moerner, the district field secretary for the Sunday schools of the district, was in attendance and gave some useful suggestions to the Sunday school leaders. He returned to Paris with Rev. L. D. Shawver and gave an address to the Sunday school workers of the First Methodist church last evening.

Next Meeting is to Be Held Sunday Afternoon With Mrs. Tolgert as Conudctor

Last Monday evening a party from the Baptist church, including Mrs. W. B. Kendall and Mrs. L. A. Tolbert, went to Pattonville to organize a study class. Quite a number were enrolled and it is expected that many more will be during the coming week.

The next meeting of the study class will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The devotional will be given by Mrs. T. D. Wells and Mrs. Tolbert will conduct the second lesson—the second and third chapters of the manual. There will also be a special musical number; Mrs. Gunn and Mrs. Finney will give a vocal duet and Mrs. Kendall will play the accompaniment.

The class will also meet Monday evening at 7:45 and all other night durings next week.

At the meeting Monday night, Miss Mollie Jones will lead the devotional and there will be a solo by Miss Miriam Jones, accompanied by Miss Maud Jones. Summer Training School

Going to spend a vacation this summer? If you are let us have your ear briefly until we can tell you of the wonderful opportunity for spiritual, mental and physical rejuvenation at our great Leadership Training schools to be conducted at Mt. Sequoyah and Lake Junaluska. A neat catalogue is now being sent out giving in detail the work of these schools and other data needed in making your plans to attend.

Mt. Sequoyah, located near Fayetteville, Ark., just a few hours run from here, is a beautiful spot in the Ozarks selected by our Sunday school leaders for the Western Assembly, heretofore held at Dallas. Our educational director, Lane Stokes, is planning to be present and take the last unit for his gold seal diploma. All who plan to take a summer trip give this matter earnest and prayerful thought. For particulars see Mr. or Mrs. Stokes.

All the regular services will be held at the First Christian church Sunday with the exception of the 11 o'clock service, when the congregation will worship with the First Methodist church, where the minister, J. Leslie Finnell, will deliver the commencement sermon.

Tableau No. 2 will be the marriage altar with a young couple in the spot light.

Tableau No. 3 shows the young couple in their home and a little heart stealer of a baby has come to their arms and the fourth scene will be the shadow in the home—the mother and father and the empty cradle and the final scene will be the transfigured Cross and the Christ coming to heal the broken hearted.

A most interesting lesson was given by Mrs. K. B. Burgess on (South America.)

Rev. F. L. Young is in Dallas conducting a revival meeting and sends in encouraging reports. Mr. Cuthbertson, the minister of the Dallas church, is exchanging pulpits with Brother Young during this meeting.

He is a young man of unusual ability and full of zeal. He is an interesting speaker and never fails to hold the interest of his listeners. He will conduct a revival here next month, so you are invited to come out and get acquainted with him.

The Attendance

Looking over the report for last Sunday and noting the figures of 823, a continued decline, especially in the adult department, we are inclined to wonder what has become of Ed Haynes' Red Indians and John James' Blue Blooded Americans who staged that wonderful contest of a few weeks back.

Lokos like they have made a truce and that somebody put dope in the pipe of peace that they sat down to enjoy after burying the hatchet.

Looks like they have made a a combination with an awful wallop isn't it? Certainly has old man attendance groggy just now. Say, let's bring it back to 1000 today and then on up again.

Missionary Notes

The Methodist dormitory planned for the State university at Austin will soon be a reality. The contract is let and construction begun. This great building is being financed by the five women's missionary conferences of the Lone Star State and will provide a home for Methodist girls attending the university. The need of wholesome religious influences for young people in college and university can be realized when we know that fourteen thousand Methodist boys and girls are attending State institutions of learning in the territory of our church.

RELIEF WAS PERMANENT SAYS MRS. MCFARLAND

"I Can Certainly Vouch For Tanlac Being A Wonderful Medicine" She Says.

People who are having health troubles may buy Tanlac on the assurance of more than 100,000 well known men and women who have publicly testified to the splendid results they have derived from its use.

Furthermore, they may buy Tanlac on its record for producing not only immediate, but lasting results. For thousands of people who recovered their health, one, two, three and even seven and eight years ago, by the use of Tanlac are now testifying daily that they are "still strong and well."

Offering her experience as further evidence of the wonderful health-giving and health preserving properties of Tanlac, Mrs. S. W. McFarland, a prominent Dallas, Texas woman, residing at 3935 Tremont Street, says:

"I don't know anything better I could say for Tanlac than that I am still enjoying the splendid health it brought me several years ago. For years I had suffered from loss of appetite, rheumatism in my knee and shoulder, extreme nervousness and lack of sleep.

"Finally a druggist recommended Tanlac and when I began taking it I was in such a condition physically that I was scarcely able to be up and about. After a few weeks use of Tanlac my troubles disappeared, my weight increased 20 lbs, and I found my health and strength fully restored. I certainly can vouch for Tanlac being a wonderful medicine and tonic."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

TO ILLUMINATE BAPTIST CROSS

Pastor Wright Will Have The Untouched Cross as Evening Subject

A beautiful illuminated cross will feature the Sunday evening service at the First Baptist church. With all lights turned out, save for the white light of the uplifted cross streaming down upon the congregation, a male quartet will sing "The Old Rugged Cross."

"The Untouched Cross" will be the subject of the pastor's sermon. The central theme of the entire musical program will be the Cross of Christ; and with this new feature added the service will be made al lthe more impresisve. With the controversy going on between the modernists and the fundamentalists, the cross continues to tower over the wrecks of time and remains unshaken in the midst of a nation's religious turmoil.

On account of the baccalaureate sermon at the First Methodist church there will be no morning service so that the congregation may have the opportunity of attending this service of citywide interest. Our heartiest congratulations and best wishes are extended the splendid graduating class upon the successful completion of their work in the local high school.

The Sunday school will meet, in all departments, at 9:45 a. m. We have organized clases, graded lessons and competent teachers to direct your study. The Wright Bible class for men will be taught by the assistant teacher, Elbert Goolsby. If you want to hear a fine exposition of a lesson that features the wepeing prophet, Jeremiah, meets us there at 9:45.

Nine splendid B. Y. P. U.'s, meeting at 6:45 p. m. extend you a cordial invitation to visit them in their training school. You will hear a program that will make the going easier all next week.

We will miss you if you do not come, and you will miss the inspiration that always comes from a visit to "The Friendly Church," wher you are a stranger but once.

PERKINS BEAUTY AND BOBBER SHOP

Opening Held on Friday and Many Patrons Delighted with the Service

The opening of Perkins Brothers' latest feature, the new beauty parlor and "bobber" shop on Friday was attended literally by hundreds of people, a large number of them patronizing the shop with real satisfaction as a result.

The shop is just to the right of the elevator on the second floor, and its arrangements are most convenient.

As always with the opening and special showings here, the affair had more the nature of a social event than a business undertaking.

The newly decorated booths had vase after vase of lovely carnations in many colors, and these were given as favors to the ladies who called during the afternoon. Punch was served at a small table nearby, and to the children were distributed toys which were eagerly sought by all the youngsters.

The entrance to the shop, where the "bobber" chairs are placed, is arranged at one end with a comfortable wicker sofa and rockers to match so that one does not tire while waiting turn for service.

There is a special high chair for the little folks and a grown-up size for the big girls and ladies, for barber service, and in addition, there is a manicure table and an assistant in charge here.

The rest of the shop is divided into three spotless booths, curtained off from an open corridor, insuring privacy for the patrons.

One is for shampooing, equipped with a comfortable padded chair, a vavatory with hot and cold water, an electric dryer, and other paraphernalia to add to the comfort of the once arduous process of washing the hair.

The second booth is arranged for massage and facial treatment of all sorts, and similar furnishings to that in the other booths are placed here.

The third booth is fuly equipped for marceling, the most successful method yet found for keeping the wave in bobbed hair, and one which is growing in favor constantly.

Marinello toilet preparations are to be found in the shop, and Paris women who have long used this line will be delighted that they are to receive expert treatments and accredited Marinello service at the Perkins shop.

Mrs. Lillie Stoner is in charge of the facial work and the marceling, and Aubrey L. Stewart, an expert barber; an experienced Marinello operator and a maid are included in the staff of the new shop, insuring attention for all patrons.

The shop is a decided asset to the store and to the city and is in line with the Perkins policy of supplying the needs of its customers to the fullest extent.

LOCAL BANKERS AT CONVENTION

J. A. Smith, W. H. Atkinson and Others Have Returned from Fine Trip

The local representatives who attended the State bankers convention have all returned and report a most interesting, valuable and entertaining trip to the capital city.

J. A. Smith of the First National bank, says there was lots of business and lots of entertainment during the three days spent in Austin, and that everyone in the party felt the convention well worth while.

Mrs. Smith accompanied him, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Atkinson and their son, Maclin, made up a party which made the trip overland, returning Friday evening.

Besides these, H. L. Baker and E. H. McGlasson went from Paris and others from nearby towns.

The Clarksville group included A. M. Graves, the retiring president of the association, and his wife; Marshall Simms, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bowers and Miss Josephine Bowers.

From Deport were John Moore and Tom Jeffus, as representatives of banks there.

BANK CONVENTION WAS ENTERTAINED

E. H. McGlasson Tells of Enjoyable Affairs in Honor of Austin Visitors

E. H. McGlasson of the First State bank returned from the State convention of bankers held at Austin this week, most enthusiastic over the warm welcome and lavish entertainment extended the large number of delegates in attendance.

The new Austin hotel was opened especially for the occasion and was headquarters for the convention, though not nearly all the number registered could be accommodated there. It is a handsome ten-story structure, modern in every way.

An address by his excellency, Governor Neff, was heard by the convention and other well known and able speakers addressed the visitors.

A program at the Majestic theater was given by students from the school for the blind, the deaf and dumb institute and by the girls' glee club of the State university. This was especially interesting and was very much appreciated.

Another feature provided for the entertainment of the guests was a big barbecue given at the aviation field near the city.

Among the distinguished guests of the convention was Mr. Green of Memphis, who represented the Federal reserve.

A FETE GIVEN AT THE FOURTH WARD

Lucile Bedford Was Chosen Queen and Received News Loving Cup

Royalty held court and high festival at the May Fete at the Fourth ward school Friday evening at 6:30 when Lucile Bedford was crowned Queen of the May—the choice of the school; and every child who attends the school had a part in the festival held in her honor; and to honor an occasion for a double celebration; for The Morning News loving cup, given to the city ward school making the highest record in interscholastic league work ,was presented to the school and to the large assemblage of patrons of the school by Harry T. Warner of The News.

The children marched two by two—and there were several hundred of them, across the courtyard to take their places at intervals on the grass around the throne.

Eight little Brownies and eight dainty fairies in rainbow dresses were the first in the procession.

Followed the court herald in his scarlet cape and plumes, with two tiny flower girls in fluffy white dresses and wearing wreaths of pink roses, scattered rose petals in the path of the Queen of the May, who was as beautiful in her white robe, with its long train, held by a tiny trainbearer, as are the fairies pictured in story books.

The maids of honor took their places on either side of the throne to await the coronation of the queen; while the crown bearer held the crown on a cushion.

The throne was a thing of beauty with its colors of purple and gold and the pink and green colors in honor of the coming of the Queen of the May.

The herald placed the crown of roses on the queen's head and proclaimed her Queen of the May; after which the program was presented.

Harry T. Warner in presenting the loving cup to the Fourth ward school, told of the many benefits derived from the work of the interscholastic league, in the rural, the ward and the high schools of the land.

He praised the splendid record made by the Fourth ward school in the interscholastic contests this year and expressed the pleasure of presenting the cup to a school with such a record.

He further announced that the school winning the cup for three consecutive years would be entitled to keep it; and that it would be "filled up" by The Morning News with something substantial.

Mr. Warner then delivered the cup into the keeping of Her Majesty, the Queen of the May; and that his words were pleasing to her royal highness was evident from the happy smile on her face.

Every child in the Fourth ward school took part in the exercises which followed the presentation of the loving cup.

A maypole dance with ribbons of pink and green for each tiny tot in the dance was the opening number; and was followed by a "Clap, Clap, Bow" dance; "I See you;" Shoemaker's dance;, a Sailor's Hornpipe polka with the girls dressed in white sailor suits and caps; and physical drills which were especially well done, with children from every grade in the school taking part.

The teachers of the Fourth ward school and the principal, Zach T. Stephenson, are to be complimented on the success of the May Fete.

Its beauty and the graceful movements of the children were the result of many hours of careful drill on the part of the teachers and that the whole was a thing of beauty is because they had spared neither time nor work in planning and carrying out the program.

Several hundred patrons of the school were gathered to witness the performance, and many were the expressions of pleasure which they made at its conclusion.

POULTRY BECOMES A BIG BUSINESS

Christian is Making Carload Shipments of Live Hens to Northern Markets

The shipping of poultry from Paris by produce commission houses is becoming quite an important industry and is becoming more extended all the time.

W. T. Christian on Bonham street has made two shipments of live poultry within the last week or two. One of the cars was shipped to New York and the other to San Francisco.

The last shipment, which was made three or four days ago, consisted of between 6,000 and 8,000 pounds of live poultry. They were shipped in a specially built and equipped car, and in the center of it was a little house for the man who looked after them and kept them supplied with water and feed.

The farmers are receiving 17 cents a pound for their poultry and the shipments are increasing each year. For some reason or other it is said that poultry is getting scarce in other parts of the country and that in this section there is a better opportunity for buying chickens.

FOUND GUILTY ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Day Was Spent in Trial of Case and Verdict Returned at Night Session

Jack Smith was placed on trial in the district court Friday on the charge of possessing liquor for the purpose of sale. All of the jurors had been excused for the term, as it was not thought that any more cases would be tried, and it became necessary to pick up a jury without their having been regularly drawn.

Deputy Sheriff Ed Bell started out at 10 o'clock and summoned 28 jurors. The selection of the jury was begun at 11 o'clock and seven jurors were secured. Court then adjourned for dinner and Deputy Bell went out to draw fifteen more men from whom to select the remaining five. They were secured at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and the introduction of testimony was begun.

The testimony was concluded at 7 o'clock and court took a recess until after supper at which time the judge's charges were read to the jury and the arguments were begun at 8:30 o'clock. Each side was limited to fifty minutes.

The case went to the jury about 10:30 o'clock. After being out fifteen minutes a verdict was returned finding the defendant guilty and assessing the penalty at two years.

DONALD JOHNSON IS TENNIS CHAMP

Took the Title in Three Straight Sets from Max Bourne in Good Play

Donald Johnson is the champion tennis player in Paris, having won from Max Bourne on the Scott court Friday afternoon in straight sets 10—8, 6—4, 6—0.

The first set was the deciding play. Both players were on edge and played the finest game of tennis that has been witnessed in Paris.

Max Bourne placed his beautiful drives, forehand, backhand and overhead smash almost any place that he wanted them. But on the other side of the net was a young man waiting for every drive. Johnson's speed and endurance and his deadly Loffard finally gave him the set. The play held thrill after thrill and the spectators thoroughly enjoyed it.

This is the second year Donald Johnson has won the City championship. He plays an excellent game of tennis. His perfect physical condition enables him to play all over the court every game without becoming exhausted, this helped him more than anything else to meet Bourne's onslaught of drives.

Johnson-Billingsley will give another tournament next year and the boys are already figuring on someone that can beat the present city champion.

A PARIS YOUNG MAN ACCIDENTALLY WOUNDED

Rel Palmer, a young man about 21 years old, a son of Dr. L. B. Palmer of Paris, was accientally shot Friday in Dallas at a garage where he is employed, by a negro with a shotgun who was working at the same place.

Two negroes became involved in a difficulty and one of them fired at the other with a shotgun loaded with buckshot. Some of the shot struck young Palmer and one or two of them entered his lung.

The young man's father was notified of the accident and he and Mrs. Palmer left about noon for his bedside.

It was stated that the wound will probably not prove very serious, although Palmer was shot in the lung.
